The recommendation is to fix a Special minimum pay in the case of Dy Auditors and the minimum proposed is Rs 100, the pay of a permanent Dy Auditor. It is stated that the Special pay is proposed with a view to adequately remunerate the officers for a substantial increase in duty & responsibility. The reason is not peculiar to the case of Dy Auditors but is common to case of all officers officiating in higher & more responsible appointments. In a few cases Special minimum Salaries are given but such Concession is very sparingly allowed as it involves a departure from the general rule for regulating the pay of acting officers & imposes extra cost upon the Govt.

In the Central Provinces & the Punjab Naib-Tahsildars are given Special minimum pay but the minimum is very low being Rs 50 + Rs 30 respectively as compared with the minimum proposed by the Rev Comm. If the Naib-Tahsildars in these Provinces,

An acting Amildar is allowed a minimum salary of Rs 120, inspective of his substantive pay. The minimum pay of the Amildar's Grade is Rs 150.

On the same analogy, a minimum salary of Rs 80 seems sufficient in the case of an officer acting in the Deputy Amildar's Grade, the pay of which is only Rs 100.

The fact that an acting man is given a opportunity of qualifying himself for confirmation ought to be sufficient incentive for his working on a slightly reduced salary.

The proposal involves an alteration of the Service Regns (Rule 69)

The proposal in this case is to fix a minimum pay of ₹100, in the case of acting Deputy Amildars for reasons assigned in the Revenue Commissioner's letter.

I however think that a minimum pay of ₹80 per mensem is sufficient as the opportunities afforded for qualifying for confirmation should be a sufficient incentive for working on less than the full pay of the post. The Councillors agree in this view and the recommendation may be sanctioned.

Hayagriva Rao, who was appointed to act as Dy Asst Comr by G.O. No. R.3456 dy 24-9-06, LR.213-06-3 assumed charge of the Periakulam Sub Taluk with effect from 11-10-06. Consequently, if retrospective effect be given to the G.O. under issue, he would be entitled to draw an extra allowance of Rs 20 for about 5 months. The retrospective effect may perhaps be claimed also by Mahomed Syed Sheriff who has been acting as Dy Asst Comr of Aliur, under Notification No. R.1660 dy 21-6-06, LR.201-05-16; as it is, he has been drawing a Salary of Rs 50+20, besides Mahalad allce of Rs 25, since Subd for orders.

Are there any other Dy Collrs besides these who are at present acting as such who will be entitled to the benefit of the rule if retrospective effect is given to it?

SIR,

I have the honor to submit herewith for the orders of Government copy of letter No. 200 dated 8th November 1906 with its enclosures from the Deputy Commissioner, Chitaldrug District in the matter of the salary allowable to Mr. M.S. Hayagriva Rao now acting Deputy Amildar of Harihar Sub Taluk.

2. As per Comptroller's pay slip (one of the enclosures submitted) Mr. Hayagriva Rao's pay as acting Deputy Amildar is ₹70/- calculated on the pay of his then permanent appointment of Deputy Clerk on ₹50/- in the Kolar District office. Latterly however Mr. Hayagriva Rao was permanently appointed as Revenue Head Accountant of Kolar on ₹60/- with effect from 1st July 1906 and the acting salary now admissible under the service regulations comes up to ₹80/-. The Comptroller will be requested to alter the slip accordingly.

3. I would in this connection submit for the consideration of Government that a fixed salary may be granted to acting Deputy Amildars irrespective of the pay of the incumbents who are posted to act as Deputy Amildars following the analogy in the cases of Deputy Commissioners, District and Sub Judges, Munsiffs and Amildars (Vide article 69 Service Regulations) and with a view to adequately remunerate the officers for a substantial increase in duty and responsibility. Sir,

I have the honor to submit herewith for favorable consideration application dated 2nd November 1906 from Mr. M.S. Hayagriva Rao, acting Deputy Amildar of Harihar. While feeling highly thankful for the acting appointment he represents the pecuniary difficulties he is placed under in the matter of pay and allowance as acting Deputy Amildar. The audit slip submitted by him has not taken account of his last permanent appointment as Head Accountant of the Kolar District office on Rs 60/-. Even when this is set right he would get as acting Deputy Amildar only Rs 60/- plus Rs 20/- or Rs 80/- which is the same pay he was getting as sub pro tem Head clerk of my office. He would get nothing extra for the additional expense he is unavoidably put to by having to provide himself with a riding pony, a cart and a pair of bullocks, not to speak of other incidental expenses involved in maintaining his position as Deputy Amildar. I beg respectfully to submit that a better selection could hardly have been made for the acting appointment. I would therefore strongly recommend his being made sub protem in that appointment as I am confident that if the pecuniary disadvantages he is now laboring under be kindly removed he will do full justice to his selection.

Sir

While feeling highly thankful for having appointed me acting Deputy Amildar, I beg to submit herewith under slip No: 152 dated the 15th ultimo, received to-day, from the Comptroller, allowing me to draw a pay of Rs 70/- as acting Deputy Amildar of this Sub Taluk and to state that my permanent appointment is that of the Revenue Head Asst of the Holalur District carrying a pay of Rs. 60/- and just before I was appointed acting Deputy Amildar I was as Subpro tem. Head Clerk of the Chitaldrug District office drawing a pay of Rs 80/- per month. So my pay as acting Deputy Amildar should, even if calculated on my permanent appointment, be Rs 80/- (B60+20) which will place me at least on the same pay I was drawing as Subordinate Head Clerk in the Kolar and Chitaldrug districts.

2) As Deputy Amildar I have to maintain a pony, a cart and a pair of bullocks to satisfactorily perform the Executive duties devolving on that office and receive a confirmation in that grade.
In view of this additional cost to maintain my position, I request that you will be pleased to recommend to the Revenue Commissioner that I may be made a Subordinate Deputy Amildar to enable me to draw the full pay of the appointment.

3. I beg that the audit slips herewith sent may be caused to be substituted

by another allowing me to draw such additional pay as the Revenue Commissioner may be pleased to sanction on your recommendation.

I beg to remain
